

Press Release
For Immediate Release

Fresh, Fall Farm Fun in the Fraser Valley!

Fall foliage and harvest festivals, pumpkin patches and winery tours mean autumn has arrived in the Fraser Valley region. Families who are looking for a wide range of fall-themed activities can experience this and more when they create their own Autumn Adventures & Frightening Frolics getaways.

From September 1 through October 31, visitors to the six Circle Farm Tour communities can combine their favorite autumn activities with overnight accommodations at local hotels and bed and breakfast inns.

Highlights include:

- The Apple Barn Pumpkin Farm Ltd. Bring your kids out to Abbotsford, the "City in the Country" for a day of hay and pony rides, and u-pick apples and pumpkins! Take home some tasty treats from the quaint little farm store. www.applebarn.ca
- Halloween at Kilby - be prepared to be scared in Agassiz! Test your bravery in our chilling 100-year-old store! Fear levels vary according to your age. No matter what your age you are bound to have lots of fun. Admission is $5 per person with children 3 and under free. We will have face painting, treats and crafts for the kids. Site hours are noon until 8 pm on Friday, Saturday and Sunday. Group rates are available. For more information call 604-796-9576 or visit www.kilby.ca
- Thanksgiving Day Brunch at Minter Gardens -Come see the beautiful gardens and enjoy brunch with afternoon entertainment. For more information, call 604-794-7191 or visit <http://www.mintergardens.com>
- Cranberry Festival at Fort Langley - In Langley we love to celebrate the Cranberry. The Village of Fort Langley hosts the annual event featuring a scrumptious pancake breakfast, cranberry-wares, field tours, canoe regatta and cranberry sales. www.fortlangley.ca
- Laity Pumpkin Patch - Maple Ridge & Pitt Meadows, Experience the Extraordinary! Open the last weekend of September for family fall. For the kids and the young at heart – explore our wooded area with fairytales, dinosaurs, a secret pumpkin garden and many other exciting discoveries along the pathways. Visit our western town and try panning for gold. www.laitypumpkinpatch.com

- Saturday's at the Mission Farmer's Market - Looking for a great way to spend a Saturday morning? Visit the Mission City Farmers Market for local produce, poultry, baked goods and assorted crafts. Open to October in the parking lot behind Pharmasave, downtown Mission. (604) 864-1261

Brochure maps for each of the six tours are available at Visitor Information Centres throughout BC and can be downloaded from www.circlefarmtour.com, where additional information and links to vendor websites can also be found. So pack up the family (and the visiting relatives) and discover the bounty of Mighty Fraser Country!

-30-

For more information, please contact
Syma Shaheen, Regional Coordinator
P. 604.557.3096
E-mail: syma@circlefamrtour.com